

MEMORIAM.

WEST INDEPENDENCE, O., July 18, '94.

DEAR BROTHER EDITOR:—Please publish that Brother Krabell has given us farewell.

He held large views and scorned littleness in any measure or body. As a citizen he was free from the venom of partisanship, and in all things showed himself a leader of men. His heart was in his hand and his hand ever open. His last pleadings to me was that I should pray. I never met him in all his sickness but what he talked of "home, sweet home."

Now he is gone. We sang our last song over his remains and laid him down to rest in the bosom of our common mother with kindest thought of his noble life.

I revere his memory and would imitate his virtues, and in token of appreciation of his merit and our loss, would tell our heart felt record of sorrow and so bring before our memory that other Brethren may be cheered to be active laborers in the sacred cause of faith, hope and charity.

To our beloved sister.

The night dew that falls, though in silence it weeps, shall brighten with verdure the grave where he sleeps, and the tear that we shed, though in secret it rolls, shall long keep his memory green in our souls.

He's gone to his celestial home, whose cloudless ray is calm as night, yet all immortal day where light and shadow change no more by turns, and faith forever shines and love forever burns. There is no death, an angel form walks o'er the earth with silent tread, he bears our best loved friends away and then they call them dead; there is no death; the stars go down to rise upon some fairer shore, and bright in heaven's jeweled crown they shine for evermore.

NICKLAUS HEIM.

SWIHART.—Absalom Swihart—the subject of this sketch was born in Washington Co., Pennsylvania, February 12th, 1807, where he was raised and on January 8th, 1835, was married to Miss Agnes McDaniel Mathews. To this union was born three children, two sons and a daughter. Two of whom survive their father to mourn their loss. His companion preceded him some twelve years to the spirit world, since which time he has made his home with his son in Pittsburg, Kan. The writer visited him by request about one month before his death and anointed him in the name of the Lord, according to Jas. v, 14, 15.

Brother Swihart united with the Brethren church while on a visit to Ohio in February, 1893, at Farmersville.

He was 87 years and 5 months old at the time of his death. His life had been an active one, and since professing faith in Christ a consistent one.

Four generations of his family were in attendance on the occasion and many of his neighbors and friends. On our first visit he arranged his funeral service, selecting his favorite hymns, but leaving the Scriptural lesson and text to the writer.

The fifth chapter of 2 Cor. was read and from Amos iv, 12, "Prepare to meet thy God," we humbly tried to impress the living.

Perry and myself officiating. Sister Myers was aged 27 years, 8 mo. and 29 days, at the time of her death. Funeral by the writer to a large concourse of friends.

The author says in his preface: "So many books have been written about Christ, telling people to come to Christ, yet failing to give a tangible idea of how Christ is to be found. We thought of letting this work fill that place; Tell people of Christ, when to seek for salvation and how to obtain it." We think the little work meets the want very well.
